The President of the United States has declared December 5th of 2018 a day of mourning and announced closure of United States Postal Services for that day. The closure is anticipated to impact filings submitted through the U.S. mail, potentially causing a one-day delay. Based on the foregoing,

IT IS ORDERED that any briefs filed through the U.S. Mail that are postmarked with a December 6, 2018 date shall be filed as timely if the due date for the brief was December 5, 2018.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that any filings (other than briefs) received by the Clerk's Office through the U.S. Mail between December 6, 2018 and December 10, 2018 be afforded one extra day of time relative to any due dates in place on that case.

DATED this 4th day of December, 2018.
